

The Northside ISD Golf Program

Coordinating golf for NISD is PGA member Dick Logan. He has coached golf for many years in Texas and Oklahoma, beginning his golf coaching career in 1976. He played in high school at Caprock High School in Amarillo, and in college at the University of Central Oklahoma in Edmond, Oklahoma. After retiring from teaching and coaching in Oklahoma in 2000, he worked to attain his PGA membership and worked in the golf business from 2000 until 2004. He was an assistant golf professional at Westbury CC, and Lincoln Park GC, in Oklahoma City. He was an assistant and later Head Golf Professional at Crimson Creek GC, in El Reno Oklahoma. He left Oklahoma to become Assistant Professional and later Tournament Coordinator at the Resort at LaCantera in San Antonio. He worked at LaCantera for most of 2001 until 2004, with a 10-month position as Head Golf Professional at Brookwater Golf Club, just outside of Brisbane, Australia. After returning to LaCantera in the spring of 2004, he returned to education when he became the golf coach and a social studies teacher at Warren High School in NISD. After 3 years as golf coach, he became NISD Golf Coordinator in the fall of 2007.
