

Book Talk noun (buk) (tawk) 1. A conversation about a book that one's read, infused with joy and emotion. Best if done daily.

Title of Book: _____

Author: _____ Total Pages: _____

Copyright Year: _____ Publisher: _____

Fiction	Points Possible	Points Earned
Part I: Bibliography (above)	10
Part II: Oral Presentation (was the presentation engaging, inviting, and informative)
1. Opening (Title, Author)	5
2. Summary of the book	20
3. Why did you choose to read this book?	5
4. Evaluation of the book. (What did you think of this book?)	40

Part III: Summary

Briefly identify the main character(s), the problem/conflict they faced in the story and how they resolved this conflict using the strategy

Somebody-Wanted-But-So-Then. Be sure your summary has a beginning, middle and end. You may use the back to finish your summary.

*

Total Possible Points 100 _____

Book Talk noun (buk) (tawk) 1. A conversation about a book that one's read, infused with joy and emotion. Best if done daily.

Title of Book: _____

Author: _____ Total Pages: _____

Copyright Year: _____ Publisher: _____

Nonfiction	Points Possible	Points Earned
Part I: Bibliography (above)	10
Part II: Oral Presentation (was the presentation engaging, inviting, and informative)
1. Opening (Title, Author)	5
2. Summary of the book	20
3. Why did you choose to read this book?	5
4. Evaluation of the book. (What did you think of this book?)	40

Part III: Summary

Use the reporter's formula strategy to write your summary, the 5W's and sometimes H. Who/What is the passage mostly about? (topic or subject)
What is important about the topic or subject? When does this take place? Where does this take place? Why is the topic or subject important? How does this occur?

*

Total Possible Points 100 _____