

Homework Assignment

Interview a parent or guardian by asking the following questions. Write down that person's responses. Share your answers to the same questions. Discuss similarities and differences in the responses.

1. Why do you think some teenagers today start having sex?

2. What are the risks for sexually active teenagers?

3. What are some of the possible negative emotional consequences of teen sex?

4. What is the most important advice about sex that an adult could give a teen who will listen?
