

HCHS Phoenix Learning Center

Located in the HCHS library, Phoenix Learning Center is staffed by certified teachers, HCHS National Honor Society members, and other tutors ready to assist students who need help.

While the number of students in attendance each week will determine how much individual assistance is available, every effort will be made to offer as much individual help as possible.

PLC is the place for students who need assistance with homework, tutoring in a specific subject, space to work with a group, or computer access for research or projects.

Students, come prepared to work!
