

2017 Pillars of Northside Short Bios

Michelle Fiedler Mikesh is the 2017 Pillar of Responsibility. She is a 1995 graduate of Taft High School. She holds a Bachelor of Science from the University of Texas at San Antonio. She is currently a Lab Manager/Project Manager at the College of Natural Sciences in the Department of Neuroscience at the University of Texas at Austin.

Mark Langford is the 2017 Pillar of Respect. He is a 1976 graduate of Marshall High School and attended Oak Hills Terrace and Glenoaks elementary schools and Pat Neff Middle School. He holds a Bachelors of Arts from Brooks Photography Institute. He has photographed six books on San Antonio and began his business, Mark Langford Photography, in 1984.

Kristina Riffle Semukete is the 2017 Pillar of Caring. She is a 2002 graduate of Marshall High School. She holds a Bachelor of Arts in Special Education from the University of Texas at San Antonio, and a Master of Science in Developmental and Cognitive Disabilities from the University of North Dakota. She is the Founder and Executive Director of Obwaagazi Children's Foundation.

LTC Colette Topfer is the 2017 Pillar of Trustworthiness. She is a 1991 graduate of Taft High School. She holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Cameron University and an MBA from Strayer University. She has served more than 23 years in the US Army and is currently the 58th Expeditionary Military Intelligence Brigade Full-Time Supervisor and the 629th Military Intelligence Battalion Commander.

Michael Dominguez is the 2017 Pillar of Citizenship. He is a 1986 graduate of Jay High School. He holds a bachelor's degree in business from the University of Texas at San Antonio and an MBA from the University of Texas at Austin. Currently, he is the Senior Vice President and Chief Sales Officer for MGM Resorts International.

Frank Hakspiel is the 2017 Pillar of Fairness. He is a 1991 graduate of Clark High School. He attended both the Texas State Technical College and Hallmark University studying both electronics and avionics. He is the owner of Fralo's, a successful pizza restaurant in Leon Springs.