2018-2019 Summer Reading Assignment English II Pre-AP

Incoming sophomores enrolled in a Pre-AP English II course are required to complete the summer reading assignment as indicated below. Contact one of our English II Pre-AP teachers at shari.tracy@nisd.net with any questions.

Novel to be read: Lord of the Flies by William Golding

Please Note: When selecting/purchasing novel, electronic versions are not acceptable based on our needs in the classroom once school starts.

Assignment: Annotate* the novel using notebook paper, sticky notes, or a writer's notebook. These annotations will be due the second week of the school year. An objective test over the novel will be given during the second week of the school year. This novel will be referred to and written about throughout the first semester.

*To annotate means to respond thoughtfully in writing to what you are reading. There are three types of annotations. You may do any ONE (not all three) of the following types for each chapter:

Type 1 Annotations: The focus is plot summary/character/setting and you may

- summarize passages/chunking
- identify and describe characters and how they change
- identify and describe setting

Type 2 Annotations: The focus is connections and you may

- connect (show similarities between) the Lord of the Flies and another text you have read

Type 3 Annotations: The focus is predictions and you may answer any of the following:

- I wonder why...
- I wonder how...
- I wonder where...
- I wonder if...
- I bet that...
- I'm sure that...
- Because of ..., I think....
