

Attendance

★ Texas Compulsory Attendance Law

- In order to earn credits, students must be in the classroom 90% of the time.
  - No more than 8 absences (Semester 1).
  - No more than 9 absences (Semester 2).
  - No more than 17 total absences for YL courses.
  - No more than 5 minutes tardy/leaving early.

★ If you exceed the number of absences, you'll have to complete attendance recovery. This includes excused and unexcused absences.

Attendance

★ Attendance Recovery

- Attendance recovery must happen with your teacher. This may look like before or after school tutoring or work to complete before or after school.

★ According to the TCA law, after you miss 25% of the school year, you are no longer eligible for attendance recovery and must retake the course.

- Sem 1- 20 days until automatic loss of credit
- Sem 2- 23 days until automatic loss of credit
