PIONEERING
Upon this staff fell the task to edit,
To entitle, and to ready get it,
That which will help gain us the credit,
This, the first issue of THE HORN.

The staff chose this name after weeks of discussion,
After many a debate, and repercussion,
A name which we all hope will hold true,
And this, the first issue of THE HORN.

Since we are starting a school life anew,
This staff felt that the spirit which portrays most of you,
Is that of the sturdy pioneer who Is the theme of this, the first issue of THE HORN.

After the title and theme selection,
The aim of the staff has been to bring you a collection,
Of events and memories to hold dear,
In this, the first issue of THE HORN.

THE HORN Staff
The Yearbook Staff of Northside High School Presents THE HORN Volume 1 1951
MR. HARRY STEBBINS and MR. KENNETH HAGGARD

To the Harry Stebbins and the Kenneth Haggards we proudly dedicate this, the first edition of THE HORN.

These two families have long been residents of Texas.

During the First World War, Mr. Stebbins served in the Army, and again in the Second World War, along with his son-in-law, Mr. Haggard.

After the war, both families settled in this community and developed Monte Robles Park.

In the autumn of 1948 the board members of the school districts of north Bexar County called a meeting to discuss matters concerning combining into a large district and building a high school to serve the area. A petition was circulated for an election to be held on the fifth day of February, 1949. This consolidation election was favorable.

Previous to consolidation, most of the high school children went to the city schools. This was placing a great financial burden on the various communities, as the number of children continued to grow from year to year.

Later four other districts joined the consolidated district which now consists of 311 square miles and has been named Northside Rural High School District.

After the donation of 16 1/2 acres of land by K. L. Haggard and H. L. Stebbins, construction was started in the summer of 1949 on the new high school building which consists of seven classrooms, a library, a science department, and a vocational agricultural building with all modern equipment and a modern cafeteria and auditorium combination.

At present, Kenneth and John Haggard attend Northside High School and Harry and Bob attend Leon Valley. Ruth, the youngest, is looking forward to her school days at Northside High School.

To Mr. Haggard and Mr. Stebbins we wish to express our hearty appreciation for their gift and we will endeavor to establish high precedents for Northside High School.

Haggard, Mr. K. L. Haggard, and Ruth.
