Thinking Strategies for Think-Alouds

CONNECT

- This reminds me of...
- I remember something like this that happened to me when...
- I read another book where the character...
- This is like what happens...

PREDICT/ ANTICIPATE

- I wonder if...
- I wonder who...
- I think I know what is coming next...
- I think we will learn how...
- I think she is...
- I think he was probably...

SUMMARIZE/ CONCLUDE

- The most important thing I've learned so far is...
- It didn't say why she did that, but I bet...
- I know he must be feeling...
- So far in our story...
- So far, I have learned that ...

QUESTION/ MONITOR

I wonder what it means when...

I don't understand....

It didn't make sense when...

I'm going to reread that, because it didn't make sense that....

IMAGE/ INFER

Even though it isn't in the picture

I can see the...

Mmm, I can almost taste the,

It sent chills down my spine when...

For a minute, I thought I could smell...

I could hear the...

I can imagine what it is like to...

I can picture the...

EVALUTE/ APPLY

My favorite part in this chapter was...

I really liked how the author...

What I don't like about this part is....

It was really interesting to learn that...

I'm going to try this out when I...

I wish I could...
